 - l/ granting borrowings outside the ordinary course of trade to a total amount exceeding the equivalent of EUR 50,000 /fifty thousand/.
4. All agreements between Members of the Management Board and the Company are concluded by the Chairman of the Board on behalf of the Company. The terms and conditions of the agreements are determined by the Supervisory Board.
 5. The Board may at any time request from the Management Board any reports and explanations, review books and documents and directly check the assets of the Company. When such diagnosis requires special knowledge, qualifications or specialist actions, the Supervisory Board may oblige the Management Board to have experts develop an expertise or opinion for its use.
 6. The Supervisory Board may convene the Annual General Meeting if the Management Board does not convene it on the date determined in the Code of Commercial Companies or in the Articles of Association, and an Extraordinary General Meeting if it finds it advisable.
 7. The Supervisory Board should refrain from any decisions which should be made by the judicial authorities.

§ 4a. Responsibilities of Members of the Board.

1. Members of the Supervisory Board should participate in the General Meeting of the Company and grant information and respond to shareholders' questions within the boundaries set out by the provisions of law and in the scope necessary to resolve a given matter.

2. In the case of a conflict of interests, a Member of the Supervisory Board is required to inform the other Members of the Board of this fact and refrain from participating in the discussion and voting on a given matter.
3. A Member of the Supervisory Board is required to disclose to the Company in the form of a written statement, their personal, actual and organisational ties with a Company's shareholder, if such ties may influence the decisions made by the Member.
4. A Member of the Board delegated by a group of shareholders to permanently exercise supervision is required, during each meeting of the Board, to submit to the Board detailed information on the function performed.
5. In the case when the Chairman of the Supervisory Board may not perform their function, all their responsibilities and rights are transferred to the Vice Chairman.

§ 5. Work procedure of the Board.

1. Meetings of the Board are held at the Company's registered seat or in Warsaw.
2. The date of the first meeting of the newly-appointed Board is set by the General Meeting or the Management Board, if the resolution of the General Meeting contains such an arrangement. Members of the newly-appointed Supervisory Board are informed of the date of the first meeting by the Management Board.
3. Meetings of the Supervisory Board are held when necessary, but at least three times within a financial year. Members of the Management Board are invited to the meetings of the Supervisory Board. Meetings are convened by the Chairman in writing or by electronic mail to the addresses indicated by Members of the Supervisory Board 7 (seven) days before the planned date of the meeting. In urgent cases, the Chairman may reduce this time, as well as convene the meeting orally, by telephone or by electronic mail. The notice of the meeting should contain the venue of the meeting, the starting time, the agenda and the draft resolutions.
- 3'. Members of the Supervisory Board are required to submit to the Chairman of the Supervisory Board and the Management Board a valid correspondence address (postal address, electronic address, optionally – fax number), which guarantees that the addressee will confirm the receipt of the notice of the meeting or other documents.
4. The Management Board or a Member of the Supervisory Board may request that a meeting of the Supervisory Board be held, giving the proposed agenda. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board convenes the meeting within two weeks from the date of receipt of the request. If the Chairman of the Supervisory Board does not convene the meeting within the abovementioned period, the petitioner may convene it individually, by giving the date, venue and the proposed agenda.
5. The Board is capable of adopting resolutions if all members were invited and at least half of the members participate in the meeting. Resolutions are adopted by a simple majority of votes cast. Votes in favour of or against a resolution are considered votes cast. In the event of equal split of votes, the Chairman's vote prevails. This provision also applies to the results of elections, unless anything to the contrary follows explicitly from the provisions of law.

- 5a. Without the consent of at least one independent Member of the Supervisory Board, no resolutions may be adopted regarding:
- a/ performances of any kind by the Company and any related entities for the benefit of Members of the Management Board of the Company,
 - b/ consenting to the conclusion by the Company or its subsidiary of a significant agreement with an entity related to the Company, a Member of the Supervisory Board or the Management Board and entities related to them,
 - c/ selecting the certified auditor to audit the Company's financial statements.
6. With the consent of all Members of the Board, the agenda may be extended or changed if all its members participate in the meeting and none of them objects.
7. Members of the Supervisory Board may participate in adopting resolutions through voting in writing via another Member of the Supervisory Board. Submitting a vote in writing is not allowed for matters included in the agenda during the session of the Supervisory Board. A vote cast in writing should contain the content of the resolution. The Supervisory Board may also adopt resolutions in writing or through means of direct remote communication. A resolution is valid if all Members of the Board have been notified of the content of the draft resolution. The abovementioned procedures of adopting resolutions by the Supervisory Board do not apply to the election of the Vice Chairman of the Supervisory Board, appointment of a Member of the Management Board and the dismissal and suspension of these persons.
8. In the case the meeting of the Board does not take place due to the lack of quorum, its agenda must be fulfilled at its next meeting. In such case, each Member present may request that the next meeting of the Board be held within 16 days, unless all Members jointly determine another date.
9. Minutes are taken from the meeting of the Board. Minutes are taken by the Chairman of the meeting of the Board or their Deputy. Minutes should contain:
- the subsequent number,
 - the date and venue of the meeting,
 - the list of attendees,
 - the agenda,
 - the texts of the resolutions,
 - the number of votes cast for individual resolutions,
 - dissenting opinions.

Minutes are taken in two counterparts. Minutes should be signed by all Members of the Board present at the meeting described in the minutes. One counterpart of the minutes is kept by the Chairman, the other one by the Management Board.

§ 6. Confidentiality obligation.

Each Member of the Supervisory Board is obliged to maintain the confidentiality of all information regarding the Company /both during the term of office and after it has ended/. After the term of office has expired, they are required to return all confidential documents to the Chairman of the Supervisory Board.

§ 7. Remuneration of Members of the Board.

Members of the Board receive remuneration for the performance of their duties. The amount of remuneration for Members of the Board is determined by the General Meeting. Regardless of the remuneration, profit share may be granted to Members of the Board, payable on the basis of a resolution of the General Meeting.

§ 8. Final provisions.

1. These regulations may be amended by virtue of a resolution of the General Meeting adopted by an absolute majority of the votes cast.
2. The Regulations become effective on the day of their adoption. The amended provision regarding extending the term of office of the Supervisory Board (§ 3(3) of the Regulations) becomes effective after the Court registers the amendment of the Company's Articles of Association in the scope of § 5 item 5.2.1., from the Board's new term of office, i.e. from the date of the General Meeting approving the Company's financial statements for the financial year 2009.
